Report

Assessment of learning involves teachers using the information from assessment to guide their instruction and improve student learning. Saraswati Shikshak Prashikshan Mahavidyalaya not only builds the careers of students but also builds their confidence and motivates them to make further progress in this direction, apart from regular classes, cultural programmes executes regular examinations. Starting from internal exams, external exams and viva, the college tries to push students' zeal to work and study constantly so that they excel in their future. Internal exams are conducted in every year in B.Ed. The teachers give those assignments, projects, PowerPoint presentations to make for their papers. The marking scheme for internals is based on these projects. Teachers also give exams for every paper.

The exam is pen and paper based. The VIVA based papers, externals from other colleges are called to examine the skill, knowledge and understanding of the students in their respective papers.
