7.3.1: Performance of the institution in one area of distinctiveness related to its vision, priority and thrust.

RESPONSE :

1. The performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision: The college is a coeducational institution situated in an economically backward and rural area of Churu district. The college offers B.Ed programmes in Arts, Science and commerce stream to the aspiring youths of the district. Besides, the college also offers PMKY programmes College Scheme of UGC, Advance Diploma in Computer, Certificate Course in Diploma in Yoga. Every year large number of rural students (Girls and Boys) takes admission in different courses offered by the college and the college makes it sure to provide all the basic need-based facilities to students as per the direction of the University and the State Government. The College always aspires to help poor and needy students so that they can overcome their academic hurdles, as an initiative the college has established a BOOK BANK wherefrom poor and needy students can avail free books on yearly basis. The college also undertakes several initiatives to sensitize students to gender equity, energy conservation measures, inclusiveness, human values etc. Keeping all these in view, the college organizes several programmes such as lectures, popular talks, workshops, seminars, sports competition, activities, Extension Activity Committee of the college at a regular interval in the college campus as well as in the local areas. The college always ensures participation of students as well as of the local people in such programmes of the college. So that students and local people can be sensitized to such issues. Besides, local people are allowed to use all the avail facilities of the college such as the playground for running, walking and sports activities for their physical development, the college auditorium for cultural activities and conferences etc. Therefore, it can be said that the college provides quality education and opportunities to students as well as to local people for their intellectual and emotional growth through different programmes which are relevant and responsive to the needs of the rural and educationally backward society of this region of the state.

2. The college gives priority to promoting education to poor students from rural background. Local students cannot afford their education in urban colleges due to several reasons, mainly financial. Therefore, our college provides the academic environment to those aspiring students from rural area so that they can pursue their academic endeavor. Keeping in mind the overall development of the students, the college encourages them to participate in extracurricular activities (College Activities, cultural, literary and sports) so that they can keep pace with the mainstream students. Apart from this, the college also organizes several talks, seminars, workshops, etc. to make the students aware of the burning national and international issues.

Institutional efforts to develop position papers and organizing consultation meets are the mandates of NCERT and College to nurture and ensure excellence quality and inclusive growth in school education and teacher education. Thereby 25 national focus groups, out of which two focus groups i.e. ECCE, FLN and linkages between school and higher education were coordinated by SSPM, Sardarshar faculty. In other NFGs like Knowledge of India, Mathematics education, Publication of quality textual and non-textual materials, faculty of college, Sardarshahar contributed as members. Final position papers already submitted to NCERT, New Delhi.
